

The start of something new

Stainless Steel Bumper

Our antennas, particularly the Ad and Premier models Guard, are engineered specifically for retail environments and are built to be highly durable and resilient.

In high-traffic areas of the store, especially where shopping carts or pallets are frequently used, additional protection is recommended to help prevent mechanical damage.

A range of protective options is available, with different versions designed to suit your specific operational needs and store layout.